JOHN J. FORD, JR.

$20.00 Gold Coin 1853, 900 THOUS.
United States Assay Office of Gold
San Francisco, California

Franklin Hoard origin 514.35 Grains USAOG-112

Property of: Mr. Harry J. Forman, Post Office Box 5756,
Philadelphia, Penna., 19120

Obv. "S" shaped "lint mark" in field directly above tip of eagle's left wing. Scratch in field extending across l. top serif of second T of TWENTY.
Rev. Tablet, etc. first struck inverted.

Coin to be analyzed by X-Ray Fluorescence to determine as accurately as possible (by parts per thousand) the percentage of gold and silver and/or copper in the alloy.

Original certificate to be sent to John J. Ford, Jr., 176 Hendrickson Avenue, Rockville Centre, N.Y. Duplicate certificate to be sent to Mr. Harvey Stack, c/o Stack's, 123 West 57th St., New York City, N.Y.

Coin, after testing, to be sent to Mr. H. J. Forman at the above address.

Research Laboratory
Museum of Fine Arts
Boston, Mass. 02115

Analyst: Florence E. Whitmore

Parts per 1000:	Gold	Silver	Copper	Iron
	908	92	Trace	—

	Gold %	Silver %	Copper %	Iron %
	90.8	9.2	0.009	—

Specific Gravity: 18.07 (rel. humidity 41, temp. 75°F.)

Museum No.: T.L. 14,075
Examination No.: 68.162
January 2, 1968

Florence E. Whitmore
Technical Assistant